Caucus Member Interest Form

WGAE Caucuses are comprised of members and non-members of the Guild. Caucuses enable the Guild to observe shifts and trends in the media industry and its impact on professional writers.

WGAE helps professional writers to achieve sustainable careers, inclusive of pension and benefits. Association with the WGAE caucuses offer:

- Connection with leading professional writers
- Access to resources that further the career development of professional writers
- Guidance on contractual issues and advice in pursuing the business of media as professional writers
- Awareness of industry news
- Invitations to select WGAE member events
- Eligibility for the WGAE/SAG-AFTRA Film Society membership (Indie Film Caucus privilege only)
- Pathway to membership in the Guild, as permissible

Admission to the indie film, documentary, new media, and animation caucuses is by invitation. To be considered, please complete the Caucus Interest Form. New caucus members are welcomed quarterly.

WGAE Caucuses are comprised of WGAE members and non-members.

A Note on WGAE Membership for Indie Film and New Media Caucus Members

When a participant of the Indie Film Caucus or New Media Caucus has a project of sizable budget, the caucus manager will flag for them the benefits of WGAE membership.

If you are making an independent film with a budget of $1.2M or less, please request a copy of our Low Budget Agreement flyer.
