

December 21, 2020

As members of the Writers Guild of America, East, we stand with our fellow members at The Onion, Deadspin, The A/V Club, and The Takeout as they bargain their contract which expires December 31, 2020.

As union members working in the film and television industry, we have seen time and again how solidarity wins real gains for working people, and we support our fellow members at The Onion brands as they work to build on the strong provisions in their existing contract.

As they show their commitment to their co-workers, their work, and to the brands that they have built and love, we stand with them in solidarity.

Signed,
