GREETING

WELCOME TO THE 76TH ANNUAL WRITERS GUILD AWARDS—

and quite possibly the only one we'll ever produce where we don't have to worry about a blizzard. (Next year we expect to once again be scheduled BEFORE the Oscars, so bundle up...)

It's been quite the year. After five months of walking the picket lines, we're thrilled to be able to bring our community back together again with cocktails and awards instead of bullhorns and sunscreen. Fortunately, the incredible solidarity we shared during the strike remains strong—although tonight we've added a little bit of friendly competition.

The Writers Guild Awards are special, because this is the only night during awards season which focuses solely on the work of writers—the foundation of our industry. It's also the only time when members from all the genres that the Writers Guild of America, East represents—working in both entertainment and journalism—get to congregate together in one place to celebrate each other's talent and accomplishments.

If you've attended our show before, and have taken the time to read my annual letter, you know that the Edison Ballroom's history is a long and interesting one. In its previous incarnations, the Edison played host to a diverse and occasionally cutting edge group of performers—including both David Bowie and the musical "Oh! Calcutta!" So winners, no matter how edgy your acceptance speeches are tonight, for this room, they might seem a little tame.

I'm thrilled that you're here to celebrate our event, but as someone who has served on the WGAE's elected Council, I want to urge you to engage with the Guild in other ways too. I encourage you to become involved with the WGAE's committees, caucuses and salons, as well as its career training sessions, networking activities and organizing campaigns.

My deepest congratulations to all tonight's winners and nominees. I'd like to give my heartfelt appreciation to our brilliant host and all our presenters. I'd also like to thank my fellow Executive Producer, Shannon Walker, the show's Head Writer, Ann Cohen, Producer Caroline Waxler and the rest of our talented writing team, as well as our Awards Committee and the tireless WGAE staff, particularly Marsha Seeman, Dana Weissman, Austin Rieders, Mary Ann Lamonica, Jason Gordon, Molly Beer and Tiana Timmerberg. Also the crew, all tonight's volunteers, my eternally patient husband Chris and everyone else involved in making tonight's show possible.

In Solidarity,

Bonnie Datt
Chair, WGAE Awards Committee

Walter Bernstein Award

TIM
I'd say, wasting a can of soup would be a venial sin.

HAWK
What if you were to let me kiss you?
Would that be mortal
or venial?

TIM Mortal, I'm pretty sure.

HAWK
Would you like me
to kiss you?

TIM
No, Mr. Fuller.

HAWK
Well, that one's got to be mortal, if the size
of the lie figures in.

Hawk steps closer -- and Tim's aware of every step.

GOOD ENERGY

STORY CONSULTANTS FOR THE AGE OF CLIMATE CHANGE

We support TV and film writers by making it easy to tell entertaining, artful stories that honestly reflect the world we live in now—a world that's in a climate crisis.

Let's work together to uncover how climate change can show up authentically in your story, whether you want brief mentions, a climate driven plot, or to build out a story world.

TO LEARN MORE, visit www.goodenergystories.com or email us at climatelens@goodenergystories.com
