Welcome to the 66th Annual Writers Guild Awards. Although it’s the first time our awards have taken place at The Edison Ballroom, the venue has a long and colorful history. For much of the Edison’s life, it’s been a music club, first in the 1930s, featuring Swing Era bands, and then in the 1990s as The Supper Club, an elegant venue featuring everyone from Bob Dylan to Tony Bennett. In the interim, it became the Edison Theatre, where it was home to many Broadway shows, including the infamous “Oh! Calcutta!” While I hope that the talent at tonight’s show will remain more clothed than the “Oh! Calcutta!” cast did, throughout my six years on the Awards Committee, the one thing I’ve learned is that during the WGAE Awards, you never know what’s going to happen...

I’m thrilled that you’re here to celebrate some of the best work that our members have produced in the past year. But don’t let this be your only way of engaging with the Writers Guild. I encourage you to become involved with the WGAE’s committees and caucuses as well as its career training sessions, activities and organizing campaigns. Plus, if you’re in need of a quiet place to work, members can even come to the office and use the writing room.

My heartfelt thanks go out to the show’s wonderful host Colin Quinn, Executive Producer John Marshall, to all of the impressive presenters and nominees, the rest of our writing team, the incredibly dedicated Awards Committee, the tireless WGAE staff, our volunteers, my fellow Council members, my very patient husband Chris and everyone else involved in making tonight’s show possible.

Enjoy the food, drink up and have a great time!

In Solidarity,

Bonnie Datt
Chair, WGAE Awards Committee

Winner of the 2014 Michael Collyer Memorial Fellowship
in Screenwriting (MCMF)
Writers Guild Initiative

We are excited to support the development of your story about the LA riots from pitch to full script this year under the mentorship of David Henry Hwang.

The MCMF, funded by the Charles and Lucille King Family Foundation, (kingfoundation.org) and presented in partnership with the Writers Guild Initiative is awarded to an undergraduate senior who plans to pursue a career in screenwriting upon graduation. The recipient receives a $10,000 stipend to write an original screenplay under the mentorship of a prominent screenwriter.

The Writers Guild Initiative, the new name of the Writers Guild of America, East Foundation, exists to take the art and craft of story telling to underserved populations and have an impact by giving them the skills to express themselves and how they experience their world. 'Journalists need to act as moderators, as 'the non-elected interpreters of reality.' My fear is that the role of the news media as our country's watchdog will diminish as fewer people are willing to pay for content that doesn't entertain them or confirm already held beliefs.'

Rachel Baye, SOC MA '14, Center for Public Integrity Fellow

Dean Jeffrey Rutenbeck and the faculty, staff, and students of the American University School of Communication congratulate Rachel Baye. Our programs have been producing outstanding journalists for more than 80 years, providing a strong foundation in writing, reporting, editing, audio, and video storytelling across multiple platforms.
