WRITERS GUILD OF AMERICA, EAST

Before sending a completed script: We suggest that the individual first write or telephone the agency, detail your professional and/or academic credentials and briefly describe the nature of the material you desire to submit. The agency will then advise the individual whether it is interested in receiving the material with a view toward representing it. Most agencies, as a courtesy to writers, will return material sent to them if a self-addressed stamped envelope accompanies the submission. However, should a submission not be returned for any reason, the individual should be aware that the agency is under no obligation to return literary material to the individual who is seeking representation.

PLEASE NOTE THAT THE GUILD CANNOT ASSIST IN SEEKING THE RETURN OF MATERIAL FROM AN AGENCY. AS A GUILD POLICY, PLEASE NOTE THAT UNFORTUNATELY, THE GUILD CANNOT OFFER ASSISTANCE IN FINDING, SELECTING OR RECOMMENDING AN AGENT. The agencies that appear on this list have promised not to charge fees, other than a commission to any writer. If you find that any of these agencies do charge fees, please contact the Guild at once.
